Hi Celia & team,

I just wanted to pass on a massive thank you for hosting our summer party on Friday just gone. I can easily say that it was our best party to date.

You and your team were fantastic, you were patient with us and always to hand during the planning stages and on the day itself, nothing seemed too much hassle. It was thanks to you that everything we planned ran smoothly and we cannot thank you enough. I would also like to send a huge thank you to the kitchen team for all the food they provided but especially for the attention they paid to the food allergies and dietary requirements, it was very much appreciated.

We will be recommending the Wellbeing Farm at any opportunity we get and hope to arrange another event with you in the future.

I hope that you enjoy the busy wedding season ahead of you and enjoy a bit of relaxation time in this glorious weather too.

Thank you,

Abbie & the team at Citypress
