3.9 We strongly recommend that the Client considers wedding insurance cover for the Event, and we shall ask for a copy of your insurance policy to be provided to us.

4. Guest numbers

Final numbers and venue or dietary requirements must be confirmed 4 weeks in advance of the Event.

Accommodation and Venue capacity are set out in the Provisional Booking Email and details are also available on our website.

Fire Safety regulations limit the numbers of people at the Venue and must be adhered to at all times.

Our Guest Rules also apply to your use and occupation of the Venue and the Accommodation and these are separately provided and form part of these Terms and Conditions.

Please note that if you have booked the Farmhouse, only guests staying in the Farmhouse will be allowed access during the event. We do not allow any extra guests to stay in the Farmhouse above the maximum 6 guests.

No deliveries prior to the day of the Event to the Venue can be accepted unless they have been agreed in writing in advance – this includes deliveries by any Suppliers on your behalf. Deliveries on the day of the Event will be arranged by our inhouse team. Any deliveries that are accepted are stored at your risk and The Wellbeing Farm cannot be responsible for any loss or damage in any circumstances.

5. Confidential Information

The Wellbeing Farm will keep any confidential information or personal data supplied confidential and secret, and only use it for the purposes of supplying the goods and services at the Event, or otherwise making proper use of the Venue. It will share personal data only with its suppliers where it is necessary for the Assignment, and to deliver the goods and services contracted to be provided. Each party recognises and accepts its obligations with regard to the control and the processing of personal data under the current data protection legislation and regulations. For more information on this, please see our Privacy Notice on our website at <https://thewellbeingfarm.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/2018/08/Website-Privacy-Notice-The-Wellbeing-Farm-May-2018.pdf>

6. Start and Finish Times

Start and finish times for the Event will be agreed in writing separately with you.

The Wellbeing Farm must be vacated 30 minutes after the finish time agreed, save for those guests using the Accommodation. On the day after the Event, checkout is 10am.

On the day after the Event the site is accessible for removals between 8am and 10am

7. Price Variation

The Wellbeing Farm reserves the right to increase its prices, or to make minor changes to the goods or the services offered, in the event of the Client requesting changes to the Assignment, or in circumstances beyond its control such as to reflect changes in relevant laws and regulatory requirements, or to implement minor adjustments and improvements. Any changes will be set out in writing and agreed.

The Wellbeing Farm also reserves the right to review its prices annually. Changes to VAT or other taxes or duties by government will be reflected immediately in any prices charged.

8. Insurance/Damage/Liability

Clients are responsible to The Wellbeing Farm for any damage to property or theft of property caused by the Clients, their guests, agents or employees. The costs of repairing any damage caused to the Venue, property, contents or grounds by any of your guests, must be reimbursed to the Venue by the Client.

We recommend that the Client takes out a 'Wedding or Events Insurance Policy' which covers loss or damage to The Wellbeing Farm property and covers cancellation, and loss of deposit.

The Wellbeing Farm holds appropriate insurance cover for the property and its use as a wedding venue.

The Wellbeing Farm will use reasonable care and skill in delivering the Assignment. Where any valid claim in respect of the good or services provided by The Wellbeing Farm the Client may be entitled to a refund of the Price, or a portion of the Price.

The Wellbeing Farm's liability in respect of any loss of good will, loss of business, loss of profits, loss of anticipated savings, loss of use or for any other consequential, special or indirect loss or damage will be NIL.

Due to our rural location and the age of some of our employees, we took the decision to use experienced Security Staff (who blend in and wear Wellbeing Farm uniforms). In 2023, new legislation was passed to step up the UK's resilience to terrorism. The response is the Protect Duty, now to be known as 'Martyn's Law' in tribute of Martyn Hett, who was killed alongside 21 others in the Manchester Arena terrorist attack in 2017.

The new duty will require venues to take steps to improve public safety, with measures dependent on the size of the venue and the activity taking place. We felt it was safer if we employed experienced security guards as our response to this. Security guards will also watch out for anyone sneaking in alcohol, taking drugs or any weapons and will liaise with our Events Manager accordingly. This may affect your Security Deposit if we do find guests bringing in their own alcohol or drugs.

Nothing in these Terms will exclude or limit liability for death or serious injury caused by The Wellbeing Farm's negligence.

9. Force Majeure

If The Wellbeing Farm are limited or hindered from hosting the Event or providing any facility, booked by the Client due to circumstances beyond its control e.g.: Government intervention, Acts of God, civil disturbance, war, national or local disaster, strikes, labour disputes, epidemic or pandemic, we will discuss our proposed steps to minimise the impact of this on the Event and your options with you. These options will differ on a case-by-case basis depending on the nature of the Assignment.

The Deposit set out in clause 2.2 shall usually be not refundable (being an approximation of the expenses incurred and or the value of goods or services already rendered) and (where the value of the expenses incurred, or goods or services already rendered to the Client is greater than the value of the Deposit) we shall be entitled to be paid additionally for all expenses and goods and services delivered to the Client up to that point. We shall refund any difference to you if appropriate or may at our discretion invoice you for any additional sums due.

The Wellbeing Farm will not be liable for any additional losses suffered by the Client as a result of such circumstances.

10. Suppliers

The Wellbeing Farm are responsible for the provision of the Event, the Accommodation, and the Venue, plus Catering and Bar Services set out below in clause 11.

You are responsible for providing all other required services.

The Wellbeing Farm will not take responsibility for, or sign for, any deliveries for the Event, therefore a representative of the Client will have to be at the Venue for any deliveries between the times specified above unless prior arrangements are made with us. The Client has viewed the condition of the Venue and the facilities and surrounding areas of the Venue, where guests and Suppliers have access to, and accepts responsibility for any damage caused during access.

The Wellbeing Farm is, however, not responsible for the services provided by any other Supplier in any circumstance. If any Supplier does not provide evidence of the Supplier's appropriate insurance, The Wellbeing Farm has the right to refuse the Supplier entry to the Venue. We recommend that you sight your Suppliers' public liability insurance prior to booking and are satisfied that they have the adequate ability and insurance to perform the services or provide the goods that you require and must comply with all relevant Health and safety requirements. If any Supplier does not provide evidence of the Supplier's appropriate insurance, and current PAT testing where appropriate, and relevant risk assessments and method statements, The Wellbeing Farm has the right to refuse that Supplier entry onto their property.

The Venue will have an electricity supply. Should we, the Client or the Suppliers identify that an additional output is required; a generator will need to be hired at the Client's cost. A water supply is available for Client and Suppliers to use at the Venue.

Styling and Decoration

We are happy for you to provide your own styling or have a styling Supplier, but you must tell us what you plan to do and have our written consent for any planned styling.

Be aware that the Venue has little additional storage and you must arrange for the removal of all boxes and packaging at the end of styling completion by your Supplier. It is your responsibility to ensure that all waste associated with decoration and styling is removed from the Venue. You must make good any damage caused to the Venue by your Suppliers.

If the client requires specific and additional venue styling requirements from the Wellbeing Farm without the use of a venue stylist or venue dresser, this may incur an additional decor fee of £250. This may include but is not limited to the removal of all standard venue decor, any set up that requires additional venue staff and any set up that may require set up additional time. Please note that the Wellbeing Farm cannot guarantee that excessive set up requirements requested by the client will be completed due to time constraints.

The Wellbeing Farm is not permitted to assemble, build or raise up chandeliers in the events barn. A venue styling supplier is responsible for this and you must have our written consent.

11. Catering and Bar Services

The Wellbeing Farm will provide all catering and bar services for your Event.

The agreed catering services are set out in the Provisional Booking Email or will be agreed in writing from time to time. 6 weeks before the Event we will agree final numbers with you and fix the FINAL price for the Assignment.

In order to avoid problems on your wedding day, we cannot accept any changes to your table plans after 6 weeks before your wedding. This is due to the volume of weddings we are managing. While we always ensure to take a couple of spares into account, constantly changing plans and numbers confuses the Kitchen team, especially concerning additional dietary requirements.

While we completely understand some of your guests may potentially drop out due, we unfortunately have to draw a line somewhere to ensure the service at your wedding is as smooth as possible.

Quotations are based on minimum numbers. All attendees over 10 years old (we have separate options for children aged 5-10 years old) must be allocated an adult meal provision from our menu options and be catered for to ensure no catering shortfall.

We have a minimum number for catering set out in our Provisional Booking Email

Final numbers for catering purposes must be received in writing from the Client at least 6 weeks before the Event. All day and evening guests must be catered for as we will only provide food and drink for the numbers you confirm.

If numbers upon which the quotation is based increase, or decrease, we reserve the right to change the quoted price and/or increase the quoted price per head accordingly. The price will however not decrease below the minimum number of guests per Event.

No other food or drink suppliers are permitted save for a wedding cake Supplier unless pre-approved in writing by us or required for religious or cultural reasons on dry hire events.

Food Allergies and Intolerances

The Wellbeing Farm will not be held responsible for any allergies or reactions caused by our food or drink. Food can be made without certain allergens or ingredients but is still made in a kitchen using some or all of these allergens or ingredients, and regrettably we cannot therefore guarantee the absence of traces of them.

It is the Client's responsibility to inform consumers of any risks and the Client's responsibility to inform us in writing of any dietary requirements or allergies/intolerances/preferences at the time of booking or at the latest 4 weeks before the Event. We cannot accept any liability for allergies or reactions where we have not been advised of such risks.

The Wellbeing Farm is the resident bar provider with all drinks consumed on the day of the Event to be purchased through them (Events bar and/or drinks packages are offered). No alcohol may be brought onto the premises that has not been purchased from The Wellbeing Farm. Any alcohol found which has not been supplied by The Wellbeing Farm will be confiscated and the client will be subject to the conditions detailed in clause 2.5 and loss of income to the Venue will be taken from the Security Deposit. This is in exception to the client providing wedding favours, which must be less than 50ml.

Please note that we also don't allow guests to access any alcohol from the Farmhouse during the event. If guests are found consuming alcohol during the wedding from the Farmhouse, we will take the money we lost from the lack of bar sales from your Security Deposit. Alcohol will also be confiscated from the Farmhouse.

All bar staff have the authority to refuse to serve a guest if they are abusive or intoxicated or buying drinks for another guest who has already been refused service. A Challenge 25 policy is in place and bar staff have the right to request photo ID from any guest that they feel looks underage.

The bar(s) will remain with last orders called at 12.30am. No alcohol will be served after this time.

Any wedding favours brought by the client in the form of food and beverage are subject to the following terms. The Wellbeing Farm is not liable for any reactions to wedding favours that have been brought onsite by the client. Any favours in the form of alcohol must be 50ml or less or will be confiscated by The Wellbeing Farm.

We provide venue set up staff, bar staff, food service staff and an Event Manager. We do not provide other Event staff such as DJ unless specified. Final drinks choices must be made and paid for at least 4 weeks before the Event.

We offer a range of in house planning services as part of the Assignment. These services include invitations and or visits to our open days/wedding fairs. An invite to our wedding feast experience. You also have access to our 'Secret Couples' website as part of the Assignment.
